

What “Saint Ralph” Can Teach Us All About The Power Of Believing In Miracles...And How This Belief Can Charge Everything You Do In Witchcraft With More Of The “Right” Kind Of Energy!

Dear Friends,

A few days ago, I saw a movie that really enlightened me. Actually it re-enforced something I already knew – but in a way that exhilarated me, and sent chills down my spine...

Ralph was a 14-year old kid growing up in a small town in Canada in the 1950's. He went to a private Catholic school – actually a very strict Catholic school.

He didn't have a father, or any brothers and sisters. And his mom was bed-ridden in the hospital with leukemia.

Ralph was an extremely unique kid – with a rebel outlook on life. He'd smoke cigarettes, drink, etc... and the truth is, he actually lived alone in his grandparent's house. They were his caretakers while his mom was in the hospital – and they had actually passed away weeks ago and the school wasn't informed, and well...

Ralph just kept on living there. A 14 year old boy trying to take care of himself.

But he loved his mother dearly. And he went to sit at her bedside and talk with her every single day...

Until one day, she lapsed into a serious coma in the middle of a conversation with him. And the doctor's told him it would take a miracle for her to ever wake up from the coma – the cancer was just too advanced.

Ralph got it in his head, that if he could figure out how to create any type of miracle – she would wake up. And he felt he had the perfect opportunity...

He had been forced (as a punishment for smoking) to train with the cross country team at the school. He always came in last, and would walk most of the time.

Anyway, he heard about the Boston marathon that was coming up – and he asked his coach if it was possible that he could ever win the Boston marathon...

The coach laughed and said it would be a miracle if he ever won the Boston marathon, much less the one coming up in a few months – especially for a 14 year old kid!

Ralph's Eyes Lit Up...This Was The Miracle He Needed!

He truly believed that if he was able to win the Boston Marathon (nothing short of a miracle, at 14 years old, with no experience) – his mother would wake up.

So he bought books on running marathons...he trained and trained and trained. And he started to blow the other kids on the cross country team away...

The Boston Marathon was over a month away, and everybody was telling him not to rely on miracles – not to believe in miracles! Not only because he'd get let down, but because it was going against "God" to try to create miracles...whatever that means.

But his cross country coach saw something in Ralph. Ralph would never quit, he would never give up...and this skinny little 14-year old kid actually believed he could win the Boston Marathon.

And he was getting good...really good.

His coach started to believe too, and trained him... but there was even more hardship ahead...

During the training his house burned down – the headmaster of the school forbid him to train or enter the Marathon, but still Ralph persisted. His belief overcame all the odds, and...

He entered the Marathon and created his own miracle (though it may not be what you think) – and everything that he wanted to happen – happened! (You'll have to see the movie for yourself, I don't want to spoil it...but it is pure Magick – not brought on by a Witchcraft spell specifically, but by PURE BELIEF – which is what you need)

I Know It Is A Fictional Story, But There 2 Big Reasons Why Miracles Are Created (By Spells, Rituals, Or Other Means)

First and foremost, no matter what anybody says – you have got to believe that the miracle (or spell) will work, without a doubt. You have to believe 100% that the outcome you desire, will come to pass.

I know I've talked about this many times before, but belief is the most powerful mindset you can have – and it will single-handedly change your life by creating the miracles you need. Like Ralph, you need to believe in what you are doing...

Second, you need to put your energy into your spells – to allow the miracles to happen.

That means you need to put the energy of your emotions into whatever you are doing (whether it be a love spell, prosperity spell, protection spell, or otherwise). Not only do you need to allow emotion to fuel your spells, but you need to “laser focus” them to a specific goal. Without the Magick energy generated by your emotions, your spells will not have the power they need to bring the outcome you desire.

Ralph put the emotion of his love for his mother into his training, his desire, and his belief. He also put the energy of his constant training into his goal...

Now, I'm not saying you need to “train” or do anything physical, but you do need to put the energy of your raw emotions into your spell work...

The Truth Is, I Want Nothing More Than Miracles For You, And I'd Like To Help...

Before I tell you a little bit how I can help, as promised, I want to share with you 3 more emails I recently received...

“Thank You for all the secrets you have sent me! They really are helping!” - Jesse

---

“Hello there Rose, I got your email, and it sounds pretty interesting, and I would LOVE to get a copy of your book! - A. Granado”

---

“Hi Rose, How is your Master Work developing? I look forward to reading it when you publish. Please advise as soon as it's ready.

Many thanks and very best regards, Paul Anderson”

Ok, I've been getting a lot of emails asking what the difference is between my book, and my "Box of Magick Miracles" is ...

Let me explain the book first...

Witchcraft is the control and "sending out" of the powerful hidden energies of our universe... everything you do with Magick should be handled with care, or you can get unpredictable results that you may not like.

I don't believe people can buy a couple of books on Witchcraft, browse through them, and begin to "get in touch" with their own Magick powers. I sincerely believe people need something more... they need to see – with their own eyes – what casting Magick spells (that really work) is all about.

I would feel very uncomfortable laying everything out in book form – that would leave it open to misinterpretation, and possible exploitation of some very powerful techniques that I reveal.

So what I have done is this...

The book that is almost ready contains only a small percentage of the Witchcraft secrets I have to show you. I only reveal things that I feel are safe, and don't require you to see demonstrations of. They are techniques that I can get my point across with the written word – and it doesn't include anything that can be used in a harmful way.

For example, some of the things I cover in the book are:

- Exactly what the power (the Magick energy) is inside of you, and how you can tap into it to cast spells for almost any of your desires...
- The importance of your sacred space... and exactly how to create your external sacred space so that you are fully protected when you do your Magick work (and you'll also find out how to get your sacred space to actually allow your Magick energy to "build up" so that when you release it in your spell it is even more powerful)
- How to tell people close to you that you are a Witch (if you feel you must) without them looking down on your beliefs.
- How to "pick" your Deities (and how they will usually pick you!), and why they will put additional energy into every single spell you ever cast.

- The importance of your Witch name (and why it may be important to have 2 of them)
- How to make your own book of shadows step-by-step (and why it can add the energy of “you” to make all of your Magick work more effective)
- The truth about rituals in Witchcraft (and why a certain emotion can ruin all that you do – and why some people are never aware it is even there, stopping every spell you do before you even start)
- A little secret about the tools of Witchcraft that too many people don’t realize (this misconception often turns some people away from the Craft forever – don’t let it happen to you!)
- The Witches’ symbol (what it means in various forms, and why it can help in your spell work)
- The “quick and easy” Witchcraft Altar setup using materials you can find in your own home (and how to avoid a mistake so many people make with their Altar, by not building enough “emotion” into it)
- When (and where) to cast certain spells so that they have the best chance of success (hint: each day of the week has a different energy associated with it, and ignoring this can “freeze” any spell you cast)
- How to meditate so that it will be easier for you to connect with Magick energy anytime you need (I’ll also give you a special meditation walkthrough)
- The importance of daily devotions, and how to do a simple one I call “Playing With Magick Energy” that will further increase your ability to tap into the natural power you were born with
- Some more basic spells dealing with Love, Money, and Protection (I certify these spells as very “safe”, and walk you step by step through each one...)
- How to enhance the effect of every spell using Signs, Colors, and Symbols (I’ll show you how to identify the right ones to use for you, and in what situations)

- Intermediate (and safe) spells for learning the truth, spell reversal, prosperity, protection, and luck
- And much more! (Way too much to list here, I didn't even get to the Divination section for seeing the future, and runes, powders, potions, etc...)

The truth is, I had to cut the list short because I am running out of room in this newsletter, and there is so much more that makes this book particularly special. It will open many doors in your Magick work, no matter what path you follow...

It took a very long time to finally complete.

But the reality is, I couldn't put even 5% of what I have to share with you into the book. Most of the secrets I have to give you require more "personal" attention. I need to take you by the hand through most everything – and that's why I came up with the Box of Magick Miracles. I am going to reveal exactly what it will do for you in the next newsletter...

I wanted to do it today, but it is too late, and I have gone on long enough for now!

So, if you have any questions you definitely need answered, please leave a comment on the blog now – and I will get to as many as I can in the next newsletter in a few days. It will be a doozy!

'Till then!

Blessings,

Rose

Your Warm and Caring "Resident Witch In Charge"
